10. Reports from County Commissioners

Commissioner Hagerty stated the Tri-County Fair went very well this year. It is nice to see all the progress happening in Grant County.

Commissioner Miley commented on the electrical upgrades that were done with the help of some sponsorship from Grant County Commission. The amount of people that came to support the Tri-County Fair was huge and a great success for our community. The parade went well.

Commissioner Riggleman stated there were several Businesses, and people volunteering their time working at booths, gates, 4H, and serving food. The Lion's Club served free breakfast for the children. Senator Manchin secures funds to assist with building an Ambulance Building at Mt. Storm. The broadband news is wonderful. If all of the Grants for projects are awarded this year it will be huge for the county. It is a great blessing for Grant County to have had so many opportunities for grants.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, every year on August 31, International Overdose Awareness Day is recognized in communities around the world to remember those whose lives have been lost and to raise awareness about the risks of overdose.

WHEREAS, Overdose Awareness Day recognizes overdoses from all drugs, because it reflects the reality of the overdose epidemic, allowing us to speak and educate more broadly about the issues; and

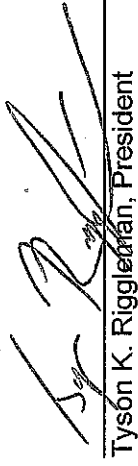

WHEREAS, Overdose Awareness Day is committed in providing a platform to acknowledge the grief felt by families and friends who have lost loved ones to overdose and to raise awareness that the tragedy of overdose-related deaths is preventable; and

WHEREAS, Overdose Awareness Day sends a strong message to current and former drug users that they are valued; and

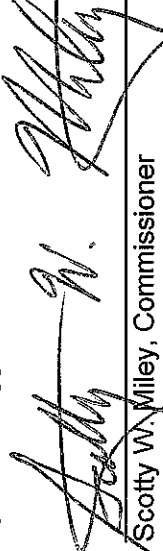

WHEREAS, members of the community and organizations associated with drug abuse prevention and aid will work to remove the stigma associated with overdose-related deaths and reinforce the belief that no one should feel shame or disgrace due to an overdose-related death of a loved one;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Commission of Grant County hereby declares August 31, 2023 as Overdose Awareness Day in Grant County, West Virginia and ask residents to remember those who were lost, those who are struggling and those who are in recovery.

ADOPTED this the twenty-second day of August, 2023.
